APPG Modern Languages meeting, Monday 17 July 2023
Languages TEDx: What's new in the field of languages?

Links to the presentations, other key information and contact details.

1. Language Trends 2023: headline findings from the annual survey of primary and secondary schools on language provision and attainment.
   Speaker: Vicky Gough, British Council.

   View/download the Language Trends 2023 report:
   https://www.britishcouncil.org/sites/default/files/language_trends_england_2023.pdf
   PPT slides available (see separate PDF document)

2. University Council for Languages (UCFL – formerly UCML University Council for Modern Languages): update on latest developments.
   Speakers: Prof Emma Cayley, University of Leeds; and Dr Begoña Rodríguez de Céspedes, Portsmouth University.

   Main website: https://university-council-modern-languages.org/
   PPT slides available (see separate PDF document)
   Follow UCFL on Twitter: https://twitter.com/UCFLangs
   Follow Emma Cayley (UCFL Chair) on Twitter: https://twitter.com/emmacayley

3. Linguistics In MFL project manifesto launch: the case for linguistics in the MFL classroom.
   Speakers: Prof Michelle Sheehan, Newcastle University; and Sascha Stollhans, University of Leeds. Presenting on behalf of: Dr Jonathan Kasstan, Westminster University; Dr Norma Schifano, Birmingham University; Dr Alice Corr, Birmingham University; and Dr Anna Havinga, Bristol University).

   View/download the Manifesto (launched at this meeting):
   https://linguisticsinmfl.co.uk/a-manifesto-for-linguistics-in-language-teaching-in-the-uk-context/
   PPT slides available (see separate PDF document)
   Main project website: